

SJ HD – Software Center

The Software Center is located only Windows 10 machines and offers a small range of software available for download for users. No admin rights are required to install these listed applications.

It is a good idea to visit this Center when troubleshooting the applications available with a user. Be sure to verify ANY application you are looking to reinstall via this method when working with a user.